Submission of proposals

Prospect speakers are welcome to submit abstract proposals contributing to any one of the nine AELINCO thematic panels:

- Corpus design, compilation and types
- Discourse, literary analysis and corpora
- Corpus-based grammatical studies
- Corpus-based lexicology and lexicography
- Corpora, contrastive studies and translation
- Linguistic variation and change through corpora
- Corpus-based computational linguistics
- Corpora, language acquisition and teaching
- Special uses of corpus linguistics

Format

The Organising Committee of CILC2023 invites the submission of abstract proposals for oral presentations (20 minutes) or poster presentations (A1), in line with the central themes of the conference or related to one of the nine areas of interest (panels) of AELINCO.

Proposals should be submitted in Word or PDF format through EasyAbs. To submit your abstract, follow the instructions provided at:

<https://old.linguistlist.org/confservices/14CILC.OVIEDO>

Each participant may submit a maximum of two proposals. Each proposal can only be included in one single panel. Paper presentations should last for 20 minutes plus 10 minutes for questions. Abstracts must be anonymous (with no personal data on names and/or affiliation) and they should be between 450 and 550 words (excluding bibliography) in English or in Spanish. Please, follow the specific guidelines for submission and the stylesheet that may be found at:

<http://www.aelinco.es/en/cilc-instructions-style-sheet>

Dates

Proposals can be submitted from 15 October 2022 to 31 December 2023.

Notification of acceptance will be on 15 February 2023.
